3 their individual capacities, pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as 4 amended, 42 USC 2000e; the Civil Rights Act of 1866, 42 U.S.C. § 1981; the Civil
5 Rights Act of 1871, 42 U.S.C. § 1983; the Michigan Elliott-Larsen Civil Rights Act,
6 MCL 27.2101 et seq; the Michigan Whistleblowers' Protection Act, MCL 15.361 et

8 refined or uncovered in the course of these proceedings.

10

11           3.     Jurisdiction is proper. 42 U.S.C. 2000e-5 and 28 U.S.C. 1331, 1343(a)(4).
12

13           4.     Defendant City of Hastings is a Michigan municipal corporation.
14

15           5.     Frank Campbell is the former Hastings Mayor (retired January 2017).
16

17           6.     Defendant Jeff Mansfield is the Hastings City Manager.
18

19           7.     Defendant Jeff Pratt is Hastings Police Chief.
20

21           8.     Defendant Dale Boulter is Hastings Deputy Chief of Police.
22

23           9.     Eric Ingram is the Hastings Police Detective-Sergeant.
24

25           10.    Dennis Lajcak, Defendant Kris Miller and Plaintiff Cleon Brown are 26 Hastings Police Patrol Sergeants.
27

28           11.    Defendant Josh Sensiba, Karen Larson, Matt Doster, Shawn Olmstead

6

9 Sergeants have the responsibility of supervising the patrol officers assigned to their
10 respective shifts. They are directly responsible for the work ethic and performance
11 of their subordinates. Sergeants act as one of the two or three officer teams that 12 make up every shift. Sergeants patrol, respond to complaints, and enforce traffic
13 regulations in the same manner as patrol officers, but also carry an added
14 responsibility of supervising the shift's activities.
15

17           14.    The events giving rise to this cause of action occurred in the County of 18 Barry, Western District of Michigan and all parties reside in the Western District.
19

20                               BACKGROUND FACTS
21

22           15.    Plaintiff Cleon Brown graduated from Maple Valley High School in 23 Vermontville, Michigan in 1989.
24

25           16.    After graduating from High School, Plaintiff enlisted in the United 26 States Army and served in Korea during the Gulf War. His assignments included
27 MOS: 19D Cavalry Scout, 19K, 13M, and Military Police.
28

1           17.    MOS 19D Cavalry Scouts are the “eyes and ears” of the commander
2 during battle, their duty is to engage the enemy in the field, track and report enemy
3 activity and direct the employment of weapons systems to enemy locations.   MOS
4 19K is an Army M1 Armor Crewman (i.e., a crew member aboard an M1 Abrams
5 tank).   MOS 13M is a multiple launch rocket system crewmember, responsible for 6 operating and maintaining the multiple launch rocket system. 13Ms support infantry
7 and tank units by supplementing cannon artillery during combat.

13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20           18.    Plaintiff received two campaign medals in Korea for combat operations.

21           19.    Due to injuries suffered in combat, the Army determined Plaintiff was 22 30% combat disabled. After serving seven years in the Army, National Guard, and 23 Army Reserves, Plaintiff was awarded an honorable discharge.
24

25           20.    Plaintiff studied Fire Science and Criminal Justice in college.

26           21.    Plaintiff was hired as a Hastings City Police Officer in 1998 and 27 successfully completed the Field Training Officer in record time, with flying colors.
28

1           22. Plaintiff is a decorated Hastings Police Sergeant and recipient of two
2 “life-saving” awards.
3

4           23. On January 31, 2016, Plaintiff was promoted to the position of Patrol
5 Sergeant in charge of the afternoon shift (4:00 pm to 12:00 midnight).
6

7           24. In 2016, Plaintiff took a genetic test through “Ancestry.com”. The test
8 revealed Plaintiff is 18% African American. Plaintiff did not know that before.
9

10          25. In the fall of 2016, Plaintiff proudly told other Hastings employees of 11 the test and result (i.e., that he is 18% Africa American).
12

13          26. After he learned Plaintiff was African American, Chief Pratt called
14 Plaintiff “Kunta” in the main office in the presence of Defendants Miller and Sensiba
15 plus three subordinate police department employees.
16

17          27. Kunta Kinte (c. 1750 – c. 1822), is a character in the novel “Roots: The 18 Saga of an American Family by American author Alex Haley.” Haley claimed Kunta
19 Kinte was based on one of his ancestors: a Gambian man who was born in 1750,
20 enslaved and taken to America and who died in 1822.
21

22          28. After being called “Kunte” Plaintiff exclaimed in disbelief: “I cannot 23 believe you just called me that!” Defendants Pratt, Miller and Sensiba all laughed.
24

25          29. After learning Plaintiff was African American, some police department
26 employees started whispering “Black Lives Matter” while pumping their fists as they 27 walked past Plaintiff.
28

1           30. After Plaintiff told Mayor Campbell he was African American, Mayor
2 Campbell said: "Oh, you'll be alright".
3

4           31. Eight days later, Plaintiff and another officer were walking out of the 5 police department when they encountered Mayor Campbell. Mayor Campbell saw
6 Plaintiff, smiled, and said: "Hey, I got a joke for you guys" and proceeded to tell a
7 racist joke using the word "Negroid" at least two or three times.
8

9           32. Every December, a Christmas tree is brought out and displayed in the 10 police department for all employees and members of the public to see. Every 11 member of the department has a stocking with his or her name written on it, hung
12 from the tree. The tree is set up in the main office near the public entrance.
13

15           33. This is a photo of the Christmas tree taken on December 11, 2016.
16 Upon closer inspection, one can see the African American Santa face figurine that 17 Defendant Miller put in Plaintiff's stocking with "18%" written on it 18

1           34.    After Plaintiff complained about the figurine, Defendant Miller used the 2 phrase “Native American” while talking to another officer. Plaintiff was walking by
3 and heard what Defendant Miller said. Defendant Miller saw Plaintiff and said in a
4 sarcastic tone: “I better be careful, I don’t want to offend anyone”.

5
6           35.    On January 4, 2017, Plaintiff filed a complaint of discrimination with 7 the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

8
9           36.    Shortly thereafter, Defendants became aware of the EEOC complaint.

10
11           37.    Purportedly “investigating” Plaintiff’s EEOC complaint, Defendants
12 Pratt and Boulter conducted highly coercive, offensive, intimidating employee
13 interviews asking only leading questions. Sometimes together, sometimes separately.

14
15           38.    During one interview, Defendant Pratt sternly asked one witness in a
16 menacing tone: “You never heard me call anyone Kunta, did you.....?”

17
18           39.    One officer referred to Defendant Pratt’s interview as “The most awful 19 experience in my entire career”.

20
21           40.    After Defendants learned of the EEOC Complaint, Defendants
22 “unfriended” Plaintiff from their Facebook pages. Defendants Pratt and Miller also 23 “unfriended” and “blocked” Plaintiff from Hastings’ cadet officers’ Facebook page.

24
25           41.    In February of 2017, for the first time, Plaintiff was not allowed to play
26 in the annual basketball game between Hastings cadets and police officers. Plaintiff
27 is not being allowed to play in a departmental charity game on April 26th either.
28

1           42.    Shortly after he was promoted to Sergeant in 2016, Defendant Pratt
2 promised Plaintiff that the department would send him to an 80 hour Sergeants'
3 training scheduled to begin April 1, 2017. On March 23, 2017, Defendant Boulter
4 asked Plaintiff to cancel his registration for Sergeant's school. Plaintiff refused.
5

6           43.    On March 24, 2017, Defendant Boulter told Plaintiff he would not be
7 allowed to attend mandatory TASER instructor recertification training.
8

9           44.    On March 7, 2017, Plaintiff and another officer were walking past City
10 Manager Jeff Mansfield. Plaintiff said to the Manager: "Have a good night". The 11 Manager ignored Plaintiff but looked at the other officer and said "Hi" to him. The 12 other officer commented to Plaintiff: "He didn't even say hello to you!"
13

14           45.    On March 23, 2017, Plaintiff was walking downstairs and came upon
15 Manager Mansfield in the stairwell. Plaintiff said: "Hi, how are you?" Manager
16 Mansfield turned and stared at Plaintiff. Without saying a word, Manager Mansfield
17 walked through the door at the end of the stairs and let it close behind him. He did
18 not hold the door open for Plaintiff who had both hands full carrying two large bags.
19

20           46.    On March 17, 22, 29, 2017, and many other days, Defendant Pratt
21 either ignored Plaintiff altogether or was curt in answering Plaintiff's questions.
22 Defendant Pratt also asked Plaintiff to resign as Sergeant and return to patrol officer.
23

24           47.    The remaining Defendants responded to Plaintiff's greetings by either
25 ignoring him or curtly responding with a monosyllable "Yup".
26
27
28

1           48.    On March 15, 2017, Defendants Pratt and Boulter had one-on-one
2 conversations regarding police business with each and every employee, on or off
3 duty, except Plaintiff. They have never discussed the same issues with Plaintiff.
4

5           49.    On March 19 and April 1, 2017, when he came on duty, Plaintiff tried
6 to engage Defendants Miller and Sensiba in a conversation regarding what had
7 happened during the previous shift. They refused. As they were leaving, Plaintiff
8 said: “Have a good night”. They walked past him without saying a word.
9

10           50.   On April 1, 2, 6, 7, 8, 2017, and other days after the EEOC complaint,
11 when Plaintiff arrived to work the afternoon shift, Plaintiff asked Defendant Miller
12 and/or Sensiba if there was any information to pass along from the day shift to the 13 afternoon shift. Defendants consistently responded with monosyllable “Na” or 14 “Nope”. Prior to the EEOC complaint, there had always been conversations
15 between Plaintiff and Defendants at shift change, even if purely anecdotal.
16
18

19           51.   On April 8, 2017, Plaintiff asked if there were any “pass ons” from the 20 day shift to afternoon shift. The answer was the familiar: “Na”. When Plaintiff’s
21 afternoon shift subordinate patrol officer Kendra Backing walked into the room,
22 Defendant [Sergeant] Miller told her “There’s a [prisoner to] pickup in Bay City,
23 they’ll hold him until after 5:00 am”. That is the precise type of information police
24 protocol requires be passed on directly from one shift’s supervisor (Miller) to the 25 next shift’s supervisor (Plaintiff). It is not discretionary.
26
27
28

1           52. Based on the openly hostile, retaliatory behaviors displayed by the 2 Defendants (the City Manager, Police Chief, the Deputy Chief, one of four 3 Sergeants, and one of seven Officers), and tacit approval of Defendants' conduct by 4 many other Hastings officers, it is more likely than not, Plaintiff will not have
5 adequate back up in the event of an emergency. He could be seriously hurt.
6

7
8           53. Defendants, and their supporters in the department, have created an 9 openly hostile, discriminatory, stressful work environment for Plaintiff.
10

11           54. On March 18, 2008, Plaintiff was diagnosed with gastrointestinal reflux
12 disease (GERD). Prior to the harassment, Plaintiff's GERD was controlled with low 13 dosage medications. The harassment he experienced at work caused stress, which 14 caused Plaintiff's stomach to produce more acid, which aggravated the GERD.
15

16           55. November 30, 2016, Plaintiff was diagnosed with Barrett's Esophagus
17 ("Barret's"), a rare, more serious form of GERD.
18

19           56. To treat Plaintiff's Barrett's, doctors prescribed the highest 20 recommended dosage of medication and ordered Plaintiff to change his diet and 21 sleep while sitting straight up (gravity helps keep gastric acid in the stomach).
22

23           57. In 2017, the prolonged stress at work caused excess stomach acid to 24 backflow into Plaintiff's esophagus and into his mouth causing painful, open sores to 25 develop in his mouth and on his tongue. He still has them as of today.
26

27           58. In 2017, Plaintiff started counseling as a result of Defendants' conduct.
28

59. Plaintiff is a member of a protected class (African American) who engaged in protected conduct (objecting to the racist comments and African American Santa internally and filing a complaint with the EEOC).

60. Defendants' adverse actions as outlined above was motivated, in whole or in part, by race/color/national origin and in retaliation for protected conduct.

COUNT I
Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

62. Plaintiff is an “employee” and Defendants are “employers” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 2000e.

64. Plaintiff filed a charge with the EEOC under section 2000e-5.

65. Plaintiff opposed Defendants' discriminatory conduct and also participated in Title VII proceedings.

66. Defendants engaged in unlawful intentional discrimination and Plaintiff may recover compensatory and punitive damages, in addition to other relief.

67. Defendants' violations of Title VII proximately caused Plaintiff to suffer damages as alleged in this Complaint.

COUNT II
The Civil Rights Act of 1866, 42 U.S.C. § 1981

1           68. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs by reference herein.

2           69. Plaintiff is a “person” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 1981.

3           70. At all relevant times, Defendants were acting under “color of law”.

4           71. Defendants’ aforementioned conduct deprived Plaintiff of the same
5 right to make and enforce contracts, be a party, give evidence and to the full and 6 equal benefit of all laws and proceedings as is enjoyed by white citizens.
7

8           72. Defendants’ aforementioned conduct constitutes retaliation.

9           73. Defendants’ violations of the Civil Rights Act of 1866 proximately
10 caused Plaintiff to suffer damages as alleged in this Complaint.

12

15           74. Plaintiff incorporates the preceding paragraphs by reference herein.

16           75. Plaintiff is a “citizen” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

17           76. Defendants are “persons” within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

18           77. Defendants are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

19           78. At all relevant times, Defendants were acting under “color of law”.

20           79. Defendants Mansfield and Pratt are policy makers for Defendant City.

21           80. Defendants Mansfield and Pratt’s discriminatory and retaliatory conduct
22 constitutes Defendant City’s official policy. It occurred in the presence of 23 subordinate employees and was the moving force behind subsequent discriminatory,
24 harassing and retaliatory conduct by subordinate employees.
25
26
27
28

1           81. Defendants City, Mansfield, Pratt and Boulter failed to train, failed to
2 supervise, failed to discipline, etc. Hastings employees regarding discriminatory,
3 harassing and/or retaliatory conduct. Chief Pratt was never investigated or 4 disciplined for calling Plaintiff “Kunte” in front of several subordinate employees.
5 Sergeant Miller was never investigated or disciplined for placing the African 6 American Santa in Plaintiff’s stocking and writing “18%” on it. As a matter of fact,
7 no employee has been investigated or disciplined for any discriminatory, harassing, or 8 retaliatory conduct alleged in this Complaint. Not surprising in light of the fact that
9 the Mayor, City Manager, Chief of Police, Deputy Chief and one of four Sergeants
10 are the primary instigators of the discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation.
11
12
13
14

15           82. The Hastings’ police department’s most recent “policy and procedure”
16 regarding harassment under Title VII and Elliott-Larsen is dated March 24, 1992.
17

18           83. In more than twenty years, the Hastings Police Department has never 19 offered, or mandated, employee training in discrimination, harassment, or retaliation.
20

21           84. Defendants’ aforementioned conduct caused deprivation of rights,
22 privileges, and/or immunities secured by the Constitution and federal laws.

23           85. The failure to train, failure to supervise, failure discipline and/or failure 24 to promulgate and/or enforce anti-discrimination policies or procedures, etc. was the 25 moving force behind the constitutional deprivations alleged in this Complaint.
26
27
28

86. The contours of rights at issue in this lawsuit were clearly established at the time of Defendants' unlawful conduct.

87. The individual Defendants are not entitled to qualified immunity.

88. Defendants' violations of the Civil Rights Act of 1871 proximately caused Plaintiff to suffer damages as alleged in this Complaint.

2 due to Defendants' continued discrimination, harassment and retaliation.

3
4           110. Plaintiff's annual salary and benefit package is worth more than
